

“Not for Sale” — Lehigh Valley Anti-Trafficking Awareness week

The Bethlehem Gadfly Arts, the, Touchstone Theater October 31, 2020

🌿 Latest in a series of posts on the Arts in Bethlehem 🌿

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL ARTISTS AND ARTS INSTITUTIONS

must register here

Touchstone Theatre ensemble member Mary Wright has been guiding a group of survivors and advocates in creating poetry, artwork, stories, and music.

This event is part of the Lehigh Valley Anti-Trafficking Awareness week. LVAT week is a seven-day awareness campaign. In 2019 the executives of Lehigh and Northampton counties declared the first full week of November as Lehigh Valley Anti-Trafficking Week. The campaign provides an opportunity to raise awareness of human trafficking and modern slavery, and encourage government, local authorities, companies, charities, and individuals to do what they can to address the problem.

The Lehigh Valley Anti-Trafficking Collaborative is composed of several social justice organizations dedicated to fighting the fight on the front lines. The founding organizations of the Collaborative include Aspire to Autonomy, Bethlehem Rotary, Bloom Bangor, Crime Victims Council, LVHN Street Medicine, Marsy's Law, Truth For Women, VAST (The Valley Against Sex Trafficking), and Valley Youth House.

NOT for SALE was originally planned as a live performance at TouchStone Theatre – was moved to digital due to COVID-19.

TOUCHSTONE
T H E A T R E

Theatre that Transforms

The Bethlehem Gadfly