AUG 19 1944

William Stephen Horvath, recently advanced to the rank of Aviation Machinist Mate First Class, is spending a 20-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Horvath, 305 West Eighth Street.

Prior to his enlistment, Seaman Horvath was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He enlisted in the Navy in November, 1941, received his boot training at Newport, R. I., later being transferred to Chicago, where he completed an aviation machinist course. In September, 1943, he shipped overseas. After 10 months in England, he saw action in North Africa.

The young man has two brothers in service: Stephen, who has been in the Army for the past seven years, and is now stationed in England; and Charles, with the Navy, at present based at San Bruno, Calif.
