

Vasko, George
Frank

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vasko, 49 Bachman Street, Hellertown, received word that their son, George Vasko, now wears the chevrons of a corporal. He was inducted Mar. 6, 1943. At Camp Mackall, N. C., he made the required number of glider flights and was rated an expert gliderman. He was transferred to the paratroops where he passed the course in parachute jumps from a plane in flight. Corporal Vasko, a qualified parachutist, is stationed at Camp Forest, Tenn. He was graduated from Hellertown High School. A brother, Pvt. Frank Vasko of the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed at Cherry Point, N. C., recently was home on a ten-day furlough.

August 15, 1944