

Lunglhofer, William J.

TAKING BASIC TRAINING

William J. Lunglhofer, who left Bethlehem to be inducted into the Army, was recently assigned to the Ordnance Replacement Training Center in Aberdeen, Md., where he will receive his basic military training. After he has completed the basic instruction period of four weeks, Private Lunglhofer will be assigned to a detailed course in one of the many highly technical schools of the Ordnance Department. Lunglhofer was formerly employed by the Roller-Smith Company.
