Miss Dunstan Becomes Bride Of Pvt. Gruver

SEP 10 1943

Last evening at 6 o'clock, Miss LaVerne Ethel Dunstan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Dunstan, 27 West Broad Street, and Pfc. LeRoy William John Gruver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gruver, 428 Grandview Boulevard, were married in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. The Rev. William C. Berkemeyer officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white moire taffeta, marquisette and lace, with finger-tip veil of illusion and carried a prayer book centered with an orchid.

Miss Lois Evelyn Dunstan was her sister's maid of honor and was gowned in rose taffeta with matching Juliet cap. Misses Doris Mae Baily and Norma Louise Baily, of Easton, cousins of the bride, and Bettie Weiss, Bethlehem, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of yellow, blue and aqua taffeta, with matching Juliet caps. All the attendants carried bouquets of garden flowers.

Corp. Charles Eisenbise was best man and Corp. Frank Fegley, Sgt. E. Powell and Sgt. Anthony Cake were ushers. They are all members of the U. S. Marine Corps.

A reception was held in the Young Men's Republican Club, after which the couple left for North Carolina. They will reside near Camp LeJeune, New River, N. C.

The bride was graduated from Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. She was employed in the sales department of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Bethlehem High School, was an apprentice at the Bethlehem Steel Company until he enlisted in the Marines. In high school he played in the band and orchestra and later was with Harry Romig's orchestra.
