

Deibler, Jean

WAC Assigned To Signal Center

Pvt. Jean Deibler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen N. Deibler, 417 Third Avenue, this city, and a member of the Women's Army Corps Company working with the Army in a city in North Africa, has been assigned as a telephone operator with the Signal Center. As a civilian she had been employed as a telephone operator for three and a half years.

Private Deibler, before joining the WAC last January, was a junior hostess for USO and a Red Cross First Aider. After completing basic training, she studied at an Army Administrative School.
