

Reidelbach, William H.

Lieut. W. H. Reidelbach
Released by Navy

Lieut. William Henry Reidelbach, USNR, 31, whose wife lives at 1231 Monocacy Street, has been released to inactive duty by the Navy's Separation Center at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

OCT 10 1945
Lieut. Reidelbach, who entered the Navy in June of 1942, has served overseas for 27 months. Attached to a civil engineering corps, he saw duty at Samoa, Russel Islands, New Caledonia, Admiralty Islands and New Zealand.

Prior to entering the Navy, he was employed as an engineering draftsman with the Pittsburgh Rust Engineering Company, Pittsburgh.

He is a graduate of Lehigh University.

October 10, 1945