

Enright, John F.

Pfc. John L. Enright
Overseas One Year

HEADQUARTERS, 13TH AIR FORCE, Philippines—Pfc. John L. Enright, son of John D. Enright, 1224 Wood Street, has been on foreign duty for 12 months with a 13th Air Force aircraft maintenance squadron in the Philippines.

Pfc. Enright entered service in March, 1943, and trained at St. Petersburg, Fla., and Fort Logan, Colo., prior to going overseas in August, 1944. He wears three battle stars on his Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbon in addition to a battle star on his Philippine Liberation Ribbon. His aircraft maintenance unit is part of the 13th Air Force Service Command, supply and maintenance branch of the "Jungle Air Force."

Private Enright attended Bethlehem High School and formerly was employed by the billing division of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

September 10, 1945