

Cope, Llewellyn R.

Battle Wounds
Prove Fatal to
Cpl. L. R. Cope
AUG 14 1944

According to word received by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Cope of 729 11th Avenue, their son, Cpl. Llewellyn Robert Cope, has died of wounds received in action.

The word of his death was contained in a War Department message from Lieut.-Gen. A. A. Vandegrift, commandant of the U. S. Marine Corps, and no details were related.

Cpl. Cope attended the Bethlehem High school and enlisted in the Marine Corps on September 18, 1942. He received his boot training at Parris Island, S. C. after which he was stationed at New River, N. C. and Camp Pendleton, Calif. He would have observed his 21st birthday next Friday.

The young Marine had been overseas seven months and had served with the Fleet Marine force which invaded Saipan and Guam, former U. S. Naval bastions.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a brother, Charles, and a sister, Shirley Ann.
