Marine Loses Four Toes Chopping Wood

Jan 25 1945
While chopping wood last evening in the cellar of his home at 26 East Morton Street, the axe used by Harry Newsome, 31, U. S. Marine Corps, struck a knot in the wood and glancing off, it struck his left foot, severing four toes. He was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital for treatment. Presently enjoying a furlough, he is based at Cherry Point, N. C.
