Margaret Madden Will Study at Smith for Ensign's Commission.

Margaret Madden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Madden, 342 Ninth Avenue, has been accepted by the officers' training school of the WAVES as a candidate for ensign.

Miss Madden attended the seminary department of the Moravian Seminary and College for Women and later graduated from Smith College.

She will return to Smith College in October to take her course, after which she will be commissioned an ensign.

From all accounts Miss Madden is the first Bethlehem girl to be thus honored.
