

Sawyer, Thomas J.

Brothers-In-Law Meet In Pacific

Petty Officer Second Class Thomas J. Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sawyer Sr., 232 West Packer Avenue, and his brother-in-law, Chief Petty Officer Henry O. Payne, whose wife, the former Dorothy Sawyer, resides at the Packer Avenue address, recently met somewhere in the Pacific area, according to a letter written by the former to his parents.

This is the first time the two Navy men have met since they are in the Pacific area, although Chief Petty Officer Payne has been overseas a year and Petty Officer Sawyer 15 months. The letter states they hope to meet again. Chief Petty Officer Payne has been in the Navy for seven years. MAR 12 1945
