

Birkel, B.H.

Area Men To Arrive Home on "Queen Mary"

JUL 31 1945
JUL 31 1945

Among the soldiers who will arrive at New York on Thursday when the Queen Mary docks from Europe will be 24 from Northampton County, nine from Bethlehem, eight from Easton, two from Northampton and the rest from other towns in the county.

From Bethlehem are: Captain B. H. Birkel, 465 Montclair Avenue; Captain Ralph H. G. Michael, 1203 Wood Street; First Lieutenant John W. Dennis, 523 Flot Street; First Lieutenant George Yoo Jr., 1102 East Third Street; Staff Sergeant John R. Caffrey, 32 W. Elizabeth Avenue; Technician Fifth Grade Elwood A. Morris, 256 East Wall Street; Technician Fourth Grade Milfred R. Combs, 743 Laufer Avenue; Private First Class Walter A. Parent, 1117 Merriman Court, and Corporal Raymond G. Heft, 2112 Linden Street.

From Easton are: First Lieutenant Kenneth K. Kessler, Heights Rural St.; Staff Sergeant Daniel J. Pacchioli, 1112 Butler Street; Sergeant Melvin L. Johnson, 1025 Spruce Street; Corporal Albert E. Martin, c-o Dixie Cup Co.; Private First Class Michael Begies, 298 Lehigh Street; Private First Class Raphael S. Share, 724 Northampton Street; Private Paul J. Janos, 106 South Twentieth Street; and Private William C. Peters, 440 North Thirteenth Street.

The two from Northampton are: Technician Third Grade John Evaneva Jr., 2478 Main Street, and Private First Class LeRoy C. Neil, 1453 Washington Avenue.

Others are: Technician Fifth Stanley E. Werner, Nazareth R. 3; Staff Sergeant Merle C. Harding, 315 Schank Avenue, Pen Argyl; Technician Fourth Grade Frederick Warren C. Sayer, 423 Market Street, Farleigh, Mt. Bethel; Staff Sergeant Bangor, and Private First Class Daniel DePalma, Roseto.

From Bucks County is Private First Class Robert F. Wetzel Jr., Quakertown. R. 1.

The above names were released by the Associated Press and have not been corrected. Readers are reminded that sailing times and arrivals vary from time to time and that relatives are not to call either the Port of Embarkation or the newspaper to obtain further information.

JUL 31, 1945