

Myers, Marian Elizabeth

Sworn Into WAVES

Miss Marian Elizabeth Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Markwood D. Myers, 1625 Easton Avenue, this city, was sworn into the WAVES Thursday in Philadelphia.

Miss Myers, who has been a bookkeeper for nearly a year at St. Luke's Hospital, was formerly employed in the Bethlehem branch office of the Philadelphia Motor Accessories Company. She has requested apprentice seamanship training with the WAVES and expects to leave for service about March 25.

A graduate of Liberty High School here with the class of 1940, Miss Myers was actively engaged in the club work in school. She has also been active in local social activities. Associated with the local Young Women's Christian Association, she is a member of First Presbyterian Church, South Side.
