

Glose, Alice M.

WAC Home On Furlough

Pfc. Alice M. Glose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Glose, Sr., 114 East Elizabeth Avenue, is spending a five-day furlough at her home. She joined the WAC Feb. 28, 1943, and was stationed at Dow Field, Bangor, Me., where she performed duties in the Army base office. After her furlough she will report to Mitchell Field, N. Y., where she will take up duties as a telephone operator.
