

Sokal, George
Anne

Louis G. Sokal
Ends Navy Career
After Three Years

Louis George Sokal, AMM1/C, USNR, was honorably discharged at Bainbridge, Md. after serving three years, nine months and 27 days in the U. S. Navy.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sokal, 812 Bastian St., he enlisted while employed by Bethlehem Steel Company. After completing his "boot" at Newport, R. I., he was assigned to various Naval bases in the States, including the Navy Pier in Chicago and bases in Florida and Oklahoma.

FEB 1 1946
On continuous combat duty, AMM-1/C Sokal served on the famed carriers Lexington and Yorktown. He wears the Pacific Theatre ribbon with seven battle stars, Philippine Theatre ribbon and Victory Medal.

Sokal is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School. He intends to enter Lehigh University as soon as possible. His sister, WAVE Anne M. Sokal, Storekeeper (T) 3/C, is stationed at the Washington, D. C., Navy Yard.

February 1, 1946