

Lahodney Jr., William J.

Gets DFC

Award of a Distinguished Flying Cross to Lieut. William J. Lahodney Jr., formerly of this city, has been announced by Vice Admiral R. C. Kincaid, commander of the Allied naval forces in the Southwest Pacific. Lahodney was pilot of a Navy patrol plane which attacked a Japanese convoy recently at night and despite severe resistance successfully bombed a large enemy freighter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lahodney. His father is director of education at the Federal prison at Lewisburg. The Lahodneys formerly resided in this city.
