

Keller, Leonard K.

Bethlehemite Now

"Flight Officer" DEC 27 1943

SOUTH PLAINS ARMY AIR
FIELD, Tex.—Leonard K. Keller, 712
Fifth Avenue, Bethlehem, has just been appointed a flight officer at the "Home of the Winged Commandos" at Lubbock.

The graduating officers have completed intensive training in large cargo and troop-carrying gliders. SPAAF is the largest glider school in the country. Flight Officer Keller attended Bethlehem High School.

He now joins the ranks of other "Winged Commandos" who are massing for the final blows against the Axis. He has completed one of the most intensive training routines in the Army Air Forces Training Command, which is training thousands of men in one of the greatest educational programs in history.

December 27, 1943