

Ruyak, George

Now An Ensign

JAN 26 1944

Edward George Ruyak (above), son of Councilman and Mrs. George J. Ruyak, 554 Hillside Avenue, has been commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Navy and is at present spending a short leave with his parents while awaiting further orders. Ensign Ruyak was graduated from the Navy V-7 training course at Notre Dame, on January 20. He expects to leave for New York City Friday. His studies have fitted him for the duties of a deck officer.
