

Karabin, George

Bank Bookkeeper
Given Farewell Party

APR 1 1943

George Karabin, bookkeeper at the Peoples Bank of Bethlehem, was given a farewell party by officers, directors and employes of the firm Wednesday evening in the Old Sun Inn.

The guest of honor, who will leave for service shortly, was presented with a wrist watch by H. P. McFadden, president of the bank, on behalf of the employes, directors and officers. The girl employes made Mr. Karabin a separate gift of a military set.

Entertainment consisted of a reading by Mrs. S. F. Bossier, Jr., and professional magical performances. The ladies were given corsages and the room was gaily decorated.

Bernard Hoffner, assistant cashier, headed the arrangements.

April 1, 1943