

Ramson Jr., Norval

FORMER CITY EMPLOYEE
CALLS ON FRIENDS HERE

SEP 12 1942

Norval Ramson, Jr., 856 Media Street, former city employe on furlough for war duty, visited at his home here Thursday and called on friends at City Hall.

Ramson supervised the operation of the police radio communications and served as assistant city electrician until summoned to duty several weeks ago by the Federal Communications Commission. He spent one and one-half months at Charleston, S. C., but was transferred two weeks ago to Philadelphia where he is attached to the Army Information Center of the First Interceptor Command of the United States Army.

Mr. Ramson's family will continue to reside in Bethlehem.

September 12, 1942