

Bastianelli, Herman

Staff Sergeant

MAR 10 1945

Mr. and Mrs. Bastianelli, 1462 East Fifth Street, have received word that their son, Herman Bastianelli, who is serving as a combat engineer, somewhere in France, was recently promoted to the grade of Staff Sergeant. At the time of his induction, Sgt. Bastianelli was attending Lehigh University. He was inducted May 4, 1943, and received his training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., and Camp Shelby, Miss. He has been overseas since October, 1945. S/Sgt. Bastianelli has a sister in the WAVES, Lena Bastianelli, stationed at Washington, D. C., who has recently been promoted to Y 2/c. Bastianelli Y 2/c received her boot training at Hunter College, N. Y., and graduated from Oklahoma. She enlisted in the WAVES November 18, 1944. Before her enlistment she was employed at the metallurgical department of the Bethlehem Steel Co. She is a graduate of Liberty High School, class of '41, and Bethlehem Business College.
