

Spevak, George A.

Returns From Active Service On War Front

In the combat forces since September 22, 1942, Sergeant George A. Spevak, 655 Ridge Street, has returned to civilian life.

During his service, he participated in campaigns in Africa, the invasion of Italy, and served for some time at Corsica. On September 25 of last year, he was injured in an accident in the line of duty, and from November 26 to April 19 was under treatment at the General Hospital, Atlantic City. He will be accorded future treatments at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Philadelphia.

April 24, 1945