

Wambold, Stanley

Hellertown G-I On Way Home

Pfc. Stanley Wambold, 22-year-old Hellertown paratrooper with the 11th Airborne Division, is on his way home. Shipping facilities and transportation in the States will affect the exact date of his arrival in San Francisco, Cal.

Wambold, a veteran of the Luzon and Leyte campaigns, qualified as a paratrooper in July, 1944. He arrived overseas in May 1944 with the 11th Airborne, "Angel", Division to begin the long trek from the wilds of New Guinea to the rice fields of Sendai, Japan, where his outfit is now serving as part of the Occupational Force.

He wears the Philippine Liberation ribbon with stars and invasion arrowhead; the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with three battle stars, the American Theater ribbon, Presidential Unit Citation, Combat Infantry badge and Victory medal.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wambold, reside in Hellertown.

January 28, 1946