

Ray, James E.

Allentonian Goes South to Wed Local Man

Miss Arlene Kindt of Allentown left this morning for Monroe, N. C., where she will become the bride of Lt. James E. Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ray, 1103 Raymond Avenue, this city.

Miss Kindt is a graduate of the Slatington High School though she received most of her education in the Allentown public schools during which time she was also a student for several years at the Kline-Baum Art School. For the past two years she has been associated with the Merchants National Bank of Allentown.

Lt. Ray enlisted in the Army in June, 1942, after being graduated from Franklin and Marshall College and is now stationed at Camp Sutton with an Ordnance MM Company.

A military wedding will take place Wednesday, June 30, in the Post Chapel with the chaplain officiating.

Following the honeymoon which will be spent in Ashville and the Smoky Mountains, the young couple will be at home at 400 East Windsor Street, Monroe, N. C.
