

Vetrosky, Stephen
George

Local G-I Greets Russian Comrade

MAY 28 1945

Cpl. Stephen Vetrosky, Bethlehem, talks with Pvt. Franz Krinski, Russian Ukraine soldier held prisoner of war by the Germans. Shell in foreground indicates travels of the 8-inch howitzer since going on the continent.

Cpl. Vetrosky has been serving overseas with the Field Artillery since June, 1944. He entered the service November 16, 1943, and completed his training at Fort Bragg, N. C., and Camp Forrest, Tenn. His wife, the former Irene Nemeth, is a graduate nurse of St. Luke's Hospital, where she is a clinic supervisor. A brother, Cpl. George Vetrosky, is serving in the Hawaiian Islands.
