Brother and Sister Promoted

SEP 6 1945

DORIS GEISSINGER

Doris Geissinger and her brother, Gerald, were both advanced in ratings recently, according to word received by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Geissinger, 1332 Hottle Avenue.

Doris, who is now Seaman 1/c, entered the Navy December 5, 1944, as a member of the WAVES. She received her boot training at Hunter College, N. Y., and at present is stationed in Washington, D. C.

Gerald received his promotion to Seaman 1/c on Okinawa. He was inducted into the U. S. Navy November 21, 1944 and went to Bainbridge, Md., to receive his boot training. He later transferred to the Seabees and received further training at Davisville, R. I., before going overseas.
