

Lichtenwalner, Ralph W.

Nazareth Soldier
Receiving Treatment
For War Wounds

NOV 2 1944

Staff Sergeant Ralph W. Lichtenwalner, Nazareth, who had been serving with an infantry unit for twenty-six months in the European Theater of Operations, returned on the U. S. Hospital Ship, Larkspur, recently and received temporary treatment at the Stark General Hospital, Charleston, S. C., for wounds received in action.

During the past week Staff Sgt. Lichtenwalner has been transferred to the Woodrow Wilson General Hospital, Staunton, Va., for further treatment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lichtenwalner, 345 South Broad Street, Nazareth.

November 2, 1944