

John, Mae,

WAC Furloughed After Experiment

Pvt. Mae John of the WAC is spending a ten-day furlough at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan John, 1313 Delaware Avenue. Pvt. John is stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. She has recently been working on a clothing experiment which involved staying in overalls from Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock until the following Saturday at the same time. This particular experiment, to get the feminine reaction to such attire for overseas service, continued for a month.

October 29, 1943