

Trageser, David A.

David A. Trageser
To be Commissioned
At Columbia Univ. Nov 1 '45

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Trageser, 1728 Sycamore Street, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. G. Massey Comegys, will attend the graduation exercises of their son, David A. Trageser, tomorrow, when he graduates from the USNR Midshipmen's School at Columbia University, New York City. He will receive his commission as ensign and will be assigned to active duty.

Cadet Trageser graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology last June under the Navy's V-12 plan, receiving his B. S. degree in chemical engineering.

This class of 1200 will mark the inactivation of the training center and bring the total number of commissioned officers in the V-7 program to 23,550 men. In conjunction with the school aboard the USS Prairie State, this school is estimated to have turned out six per cent of the United States Naval officers ashore or afloat.

November 1, 1945