Mary T. Ewiak Becomes Bride Of Sgt. Wagner

Miss Mary Theresa Ewiak, daughter of Mrs. Bella Ewiak, of 328 Hanover Street, and Sgt. Edward C. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Furey, of 730 Pawnee Street, were married at 3 p. m. Saturday in SS. Simon and Jude Church. The Rev. Owen P. Donnelly performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Henry Paul Long, was attired in white satin and marquisette with a long veil falling from a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Long was her sister's matron of honor. She was gowned in summer blue faille taffeta, with yellow net headdress and carried yellow roses. Miss Roberta Klammer, Mrs. Theresa Krouse, Mrs. Angie Holman, the bridesmaids, wore gowns of pink, light blue and dusty rose, respectively, with Juliet caps and carried red roses.

Pfc. James Donald Wagner, US MC, stationed at Bainbridge, Md. served as best man for his cousin. T/Sgt. James Gatonis, Sgt. Edward Raybos and T/5 Steven Hassay were ushers. They all served in the same unit with the bridegroom and have just returned from duty overseas.

A reception followed in the Cedar Club after which the couple left to spend their honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. They will reside at 730 Pawnee Street after July 15.

The couple are both graduates of Liberty High School. The bride is secretary to Lennox J. Bray, divisional superintendent, Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom was employed in the office of No. 4 shop before enlisting in the Army. He was with the 97th Division and saw action on the German front. He is home on a 30-day furlough.
