

King, Jr., Charles

Cpl. Charles King Jr., Back From China

Cpl. Charles King Jr., USMC, telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, 1937 Brookside Drive, of his safe arrival in the States from Shanghai, last evening. King, who had been overseas in the Pacific for more than a year, docked in California and is expected home Saturday or Sunday.

The veteran Marine participated in several invasions including that of Okinawa, and was recently hospitalized for "southern cat" fever which he contacted in the States before going overseas. His occupation duties included guarding high Jap officials being held for trial.

Cpl. King attended Bethlehem Technical High School and was active in City League basketball and baseball, before entering the service. While at Bough Field, N. C., he was assistant athletic coach. His brother, Robert King, S1/C, USN, is stationed on Saipan. DEC 12 1946

December 12, 1946