

Lerch, Albert H.

Kreidersville Marines Training At New River

John C. and Albert H. Lerch, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lerch, of Kreidersville, who were inducted into the U. S. Marine Corps April 10 at Allentown and served their boot training at Parris Island, S. C., are now stationed at New River, N. C., for advanced training.

John, who is 19 years old, was graduated from Northampton High School in 1941. He was employed at a store in Cementon. His brother, 18, was employed at the Universal Pants factory in Northampton.

Both Lerchs hold medals for marksmanship and proficiency in handling bayonets, hand grenades and small bore rifles. They are members of Stone Church, Kreidersville.
