

Frack, Ray

MARK BIRTHDAYS

Sergeant Technician Ray Frack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Frack, Kreidersville, and Staff Sergeant Robert Lindenmoyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindenmoyer, today will observe three years in the armed forces.

Sergeant Frack received his training at the Holabird depot, Baltimore, Md., and then shipped to Los Angeles, from where he went overseas. Before enlisting, he attended Kreidersville school and was employed at Dieter's foundry, Cherryville.

Lindenmoyer received his basic training at Camp Gruber, Okla., and is at present instructor on motorcycles at the same camp. He attended Kreidersville school. Private First Class Raymond Lindenmoyer, who is stationed in Iceland and Walter Lindenmoyer, Jr., seaman second class, stationed at San Francisco, are brothers of Sergeant Lindenmoyer.

December 13, 1943