

Kovacs, Frank
Arpad

Hurt In Action

DEC 5 1944

Pfc. Frank Kovacs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kovacs, 1033 Mechanic Street, is reported as being seriously wounded in action in France, November 13, in a War Department telegram received by his parents last week.

He enlisted January 20, 1941, and after receiving his basic training in the States, was sent overseas in May, 1944. His last visit home was sometime in April. A brother, Arpad Kovacs, is stationed somewhere in France at present. Both boys are members of the First Hungarian Lutheran Church and Sunday school.

December 5, 1944