Dorothy Grubb Is Married to Coast Guard

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grubb of 1378 Jefferson Street, Hellertown, announcing the marriage of their daughter, S 2-c Dorothy Grubb, SPARS, to Cecil E. Peterson of California, on March 13, in Stockton, Calif., the Rev. M. Teed officiating.

Mr. Peterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Peterson of Carpinteria, Calif. He attended UCLA for two years prior to Pearl Harbor, at which time he enlisted for service. For 18 months he served in the South Pacific and was torpedoed in the battle of the Coral Sea. He was given six months shore duty and now will enter active duty again. He is First Class Storekeeper.

Mrs. Peterson was graduated from Hellertown High School in 1940 and Bethlehem Business College. Prior to entering the service, she was employed in the Bethlehem Steel office. She is Second Class Storekeeper of the Women's Reserve of the U. S. Coast Guard and is stationed at Long Beach, Calif.

Arrangements for the wedding were all made by the U. S. O. Six of Mr. Peterson's comrades in the service were witnesses to the wedding.

Mrs. Peterson recently made a telephone call to her parents, which was granted to her by the Kiwanis Club telling of her marriage.
