

Bujcs, Stephen

Wounded

Mr. and Mrs. James Bujcs, 47 East North Street, received a War Department telegram Saturday informing them that their son, Private Stephen Bujcs, had been slightly wounded February 20 in Germany. Inducted February 25, 1943, Pvt. Bujcs trained at camps throughout the States before being sent to Iceland for 14 months. He was then sent to England and on to France and Germany.
