Anna Borlodan Becomes Bride Of Lt. Klotz

FEB 28 1944

In St. Peter's Lutheran Church yesterday at 12:30 p. m., Miss Anna Borlodan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Borlodan, 32 East Union Boulevard and Lieut. Richard Donald Klotz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Klotz of 608 Ontario Street were married by the Rev. Dr. Corson C. Snyder.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Frank Korpics, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Korpics. She wore a gown of white taffeta, a long veil of tulle and lace and carried white rosebuds and snapdragons. Mrs. Korpics wore pink silk jersey and carried delphiniums and snapdragons.

William Lehman Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man and Rollin P. Klotz, a brother and Frank Gall, another brother-in-law were ushers.

Baskets of Spring flowers decorated the chancel. Miss Marion Beck played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception for the bridal party and immediate families followed at the home of the bridegroom.

The bride attended Bethlehem schools and is in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom attended Fountain Hill and Bethlehem Schools and was also in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the Army. He is now stationed at Camp Polk, La.
