

Czapko, Raymond D.

Lieut. In Alaska

DEC 19 1944

Word has just been received to the effect that 2nd Lieut. Raymond D. Czapko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kalman Czapko, of Allentown, formerly of Bethlehem, has been promoted to First Lieutenant in his post at Fort Richardson, Alaska.

Lt. Czapko, serving in the U. S. Army for over two years, has had the position of battalion adjutant in a Military Police Battalion for a short time before his promotion. He is a former student at Lehigh University and was employed as an inspector for the Bethlehem Steel Company when he entered the service.
