

Lobb, Walter

SALVATION ARMY GIVES FAREWELL TO WORKER

8-8 ——— 1942
Walter Lobb Honored During Program at Headquarters.

Members of the Salvation Army Corps gave a farewell party for one of its members, Walter Lobb, Friday evening, in the Army headquarters. Lobb will leave next Wednesday for the U. S. Army.

The guest of honor, an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company, has served as a teacher in the Sunday School, a member of the band and a former president of the Lehigh Valley Salvation Army Youth Forum.

At formal exercises preceding the party, Mr. Lobb brought a message to the assemblage. Lt. Robert Strain was in charge of the program.

Words were spoken by Arlan Hoffman on behalf of the Bethlehem Corps Band; Y. P. S. M. William Lewis spoke on behalf of the Sunday School, and C. S. M. John Hoffman on behalf of the Bethlehem Corps. The latter also presented Mr. Lobb with a gift. Major Clark Little offered his best wishes.

Miss Mary Knauss sang a vocal selection, accompanied by Miss Martha Baranek on the piano. A reading was given by Esther Little, and another vocal solo was sung by Pearl Little.

A social period followed. Music was played by Mr. and Mrs. George Holzinger, Arlan Hoffman and Robert Minninger.

Special guests present were Mrs. Walter Lobb, Sr., mother of the guest of honor; Mrs. Clarence Baron, his sister; Miss Louise Belshier, guest of Rev. Thornton Lobb, and Miss Mary Ann Hildebrandt, guest of Mr. Lobb.
