

Flammer, Robert G.

Local Man Assigned To Bomber Squadron

FIFTEENTH OXAF 13 1945
—
Corporal Robert G. Flammer, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Flammer, 792 Washington Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., has recently arrived overseas, and is assigned to a heavy bombardment squadron while awaiting his first combat mission.

Corp. Flammer is the ball turret gunner on a B-24 Liberator. He graduated from Liberty High School in 1941, and attended the Bethlehem Business College. When he entered the service on January 28, 1943.

November 13, 1945