

King, Woodrow W.

Lieut. King To Leave
For Virginia Friday

Lieut. Woodrow W. King, who has been spending several weeks furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King, and family, 1333 Easton Avenue, after being invalided home from the North African front, will leave Friday to report at the Army Hospital at Staunton, Va. He plans to visit with relatives en route.

After a physical check-up of his condition the young officer expects to be re-assigned to duty, probably at some station in the United States.

December 1, 1943