

The Rape and Pillage of Martin Tower, Bethlehem, PA.

The Bethlehem Gadfly Uncategorized May 9, 2019

Gadfly:

It will be much regretted a generation from now. Architecturally It is a remarkable building in its own right, and, at least in miniature, rivals other such modern structures like the Twin Towers in NYC. It is not just that terrorists destroyed the Twin Towers that makes us miss them. When will we learn to cherish beauty for its own sake?
