

Kish, James

Promoted

Sergeant James Kish, son of Mrs. Lydia Kish, 459 East Twelfth Street, was promoted to the rank of sergeant since serving in Italy. In April Sgt. Kish finished his second year of service in the armed forces. He also served in North Africa, and has been overseas for over a year. He received his basic training at a camp in Mississippi, and before entering the Army, was employed as a sheet-metal worker by E. J. Mickley, Bethlehem.

A brother, Seaman First Class John Kish, is with the U. S. Navy presently serving in England. Seaman John will be serving one year in July of this year and has already made two previous trips overseas. He received his boot training at the Sampson Naval Training Base, N. Y. Before entering the armed forces, Seaman Kish was employed by the Phoenix Manufacturing Corporation, Catsaqua.

A nephew of the Kish brothers is also serving his country. He is Private Joseph Kovacs, who has been in Italy for the past several months.
