

Leaves for Training

The first Freemansburg girl to join the WAAC, Mrs. Snyder was employed by the Sure-Fit Products Co., Bethlehem, before enlisting. She attended the Monroe School. Her brothers, Alex and Edward are in the service, Alex with the Army at Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Edward with the Navy at Long Island Beach, N. Y.
