

Kelly, Alvin

Kelly Goes To Sea

NEW YORK. MAY 10 1944 (INS) — Alvin (Shipwreck) Kelly, well-known "flagpole sitter," has gone to sea as the second officer of an American merchant vessel, the War Shipping Administration revealed. Kelly was an ensign during the last war and has had 14 years of harbor and deep sea experience. Until recently he was working as a ship rigger in new Orleans.

May 10, 1944