

Nafe, Charles T.

The marriage of Miss Helen Abeth Drissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob K. Drissel, and Lieut. Charles Thomas Nafe, son of Mrs. Charles S. Nafe and the late Mr. Nafe, 1125 North New Street, took place yesterday at 2 p. m. in Edgeboro Moravian Church. The Rev. Reuben H. Gross officiated.

Gowned in traditional white satin, finger-tip veil and halo of orange blossoms, the bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her bouquet was of white pompons, orchids and bouvardia.

Mrs. William J. Manner was her matron of honor and wore a Nile green taffeta and net gown, with matching bonnet. She carried yellow daffodils and pink snapdragons.

Mr. Manner was the bridegroom's best man and Adrien R. Drissel of Bethlehem and Lloyd J. Drissel, of Saylorsburg, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Palms and bouquets of gladioli and white pompons decorated the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. William Feehrer, who gave a half-hour recital before the ceremony. After the wedding, the couple left on a trip to New York City.

The bride is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and Bethlehem Business College. She is employed in the sales department of Weston Dodson and Company, Inc.

The bridegroom was graduated from Bethlehem High School and Moravian College for Men and was formerly in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company. He just returned from a year and one-half of service over-seas.
