C. M. Stauffer, SK3/C,
Looks for Discharge

OKINAWA—"I'm glad the war is over and hope to be on my way home soon," says C. M. Stauffer, 28, storekeeper, third class, USNR, whose wife Dorothea, lives at 701 North New Street, Bethlehem, Pa. Disbursing storekeepers are one of the class of ratings not yet eligible for discharge under the new Navy point system.

SEP 18 1945
Stauffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stauffer Sr., 649 Highland Avenue, Bethlehem, expects to return to his former position as an accountant for the Bethlehem Steel Corp., when he is discharged.
