

Reynolds, Donald

Gunner's Mate Reynolds Home After Sea Battles

Donald Reynolds, gunner's mate on a battleship with participation in seven major sea battles to his credit, is home on furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Reynolds, 848 East Mechanic Street.

With him and his parents for the Fourth of July holiday season are a brother, Lt. Walter E. Reynolds, recently commissioned a flight officer at Selman Field, Monroe, La., and a brother-in-law, Sgt. Virgel Mergargell, Orangeville, Pa., husband of the former Ethelyn Reynolds.

Gunner's Mate Reynolds will observe his second anniversary of service in the Navy on Saturday. He will report for duty the following day.

JUL 3 1944
He participated in the fighting at Casablanca and for the past 18 months has been in action in the South Pacific.

July 3, 1944