

Harris, Robert M.

Completes Training

JUN 13 1944

ARMY AIR FIELD, Mountain Home, Idaho—S|Sgt. Robert M. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Harris, Pen Argyl, has completed his phases of combat training at the Mountain Home Army Air Field, prior to his overseas assignment, and received his present rating.

Sergeant Harris entered the military service February 18, 1943 and has attended the Army Air Forces for training at the Keesler Field, Miss., and Harlingen Field, Tex. He is an engineer for the Liberator bomber.

Prior to his enlistment he was a graduate of the Pen Argyl High School and later was employed as an aircraft electrician.

June 13, 1944